

Agora Modiano, which is almost a century old and one of Thessaloniki's most important monuments and sights, returns in September 2022. Modiano Market's mission is to offer its visitors fresh and packaged products and fine Greek and multicultural flavors in a unique environment of high architectural aesthetics and historical significance where the traditional blends with the modern and reflects Thessaloniki's gastronomic wealth and cultural dynamics.